Rose Financial Services Named a Helios HR Apollo Awards Finalist for the Third Consecutive Year

March 18, 2010 – Rose Financial Services, (RFS), the Premier U.S. Based Accounting and Financial Outsourcing Firm, announced today that it has been named a Helios HR Apollo Awards finalist for the third consecutive year. The Helios HR Apollo Awards is the leading awards program for recognizing employers in the Washington metropolitan region that invest in employee development initiatives. RFS is one of five finalists in the Emerging Companies category.

“This year’s finalists really go above and beyond to promote a culture of continuous learning and growth for their employees,” said Kathy Albarado, President & CEO, Helios HR. “We congratulate the 2010 finalists and look forward to honoring their efforts as well as sharing their employee development practices with the larger leadership community.”

RFS was selected as a finalist by an independent panel of recognized workforce development and HR authorities for our organization’s support of employee development initiatives and our ability to communicate the overall impact of these programs.

“Staff development is a primary focus at all levels, and is an ongoing process for RFS,” said Ted Rose, President & CEO. “We are honored that the Helios HR Apollo Awards have applauded our efforts for three consecutive years.”

Helios HR will honor the finalists and announce the winners at the Apollo Awards breakfast ceremony on Thursday, June 3, 2010 at the Fairview Park Marriot in Falls Church, Va. Best practices in employee development will also be shared at the event.
