Rose Financial Services Named Top Financial and Accounting Outsourcing Firm in Washington-Baltimore Metro Area

ROCKVILLE, MD, July 8, 2010– Rose Financial Services (RFS), the Premier U.S. Based Accounting and Financial Outsourcing Firm, announced that it has been named one of The Black Book of Outsourcing’s prestigious “2009 Top General Accounting Outsourcing Vendors” and for the second consecutive year is the highest rated firm headquartered in the Washington-Baltimore Metro Area.

Each spring, The Datamonitor Group (who “purchased” the survey from Brown-Wilson) tallies the submissions of over 25,000 users of outsourcing services, including IT, Finance & Accounting and Legal Services. The results of this survey are considered a bellwether in the industry and a key tool for any enterprise looking to select outsourcing vendors.

"It is an honor for our firm to be recognized as a global leader in this industry for the second year in a row," said Ted Rose, President and CEO of RFS. "We see this as an opportunity for even more companies to discover the benefits of our cost effective and scalable accounting solutions."

According to Conor Cleary of The Black Book of Outsourcing, “Several thousand responses were received for the 2009 survey and 120 firms were qualified for the report. Companies were judged on a number of Key Performance Indicators within their verticals and Rose Financial Services was number 18 overall.”
