Rose Financial Services Selected to Present at Deltek Insight 2010

ROCKVILLE, MD, February 1, 2010 – Rose Financial Services, the Premier U.S. Based Accounting and Financial Outsourcing Firm, announced today that Ted Rose, President & CEO, has been chosen to lead a session at Deltek’s Insight 2010.

Mr. Rose’s session will outline how Deltek and a proper control environment can help a company maintain DCAA compliance and avoid problems with DCAA top audit issues. Case studies will be presented to illustrate how RFS works with its clients, in conjunction with Deltek, to maintain DCAA-approved accounting systems.

“With new rules and regulations, it is essential for companies to know what the DCAA looks for in an adequate accounting system and how the Deltek accounting modules improve the control environment,” said Ted Rose. “I am honored to be a part of an impressive speaker program and to have the opportunity to share my expertise with the conference body.”

Deltek, a provider of enterprise applications, produces an annual conference that brings together over 3,000 business peers, industry analysts, Deltek users, Deltek executives and product experts to discuss the unique needs of project-focused businesses and integrating Deltek Solutions. Insight 2010 will take place May 17-20, at the Gaylord National Hotel & Convention Center, located right outside Washington, D.C. It will feature over 300 training sessions, multiple networking events and an exhibit floor.
