Ted Rose Named to R.H. Smith School's Accounting and Information Assurance Advisory Board

ROCKVILLE, MD, March 31, 2009 – Rose Financial Services (RFS), the Premier U.S. Based Accounting and Financial Outsourcing Firm, announced that company president, Ted Rose, has been appointed to the Robert H. Smith School of Business Accounting and Information Assurance Advisory Board. The Board serves primarily as a communication link between the academic and professional accounting community.

“As a graduate and avid supporter of the University of Maryland, this opportunity is especially gratifying. It is an honor to be able to bring my 15 years of experience as an accounting outsourcing professional to this esteemed board. In these challenging times, it seems more important than ever for practitioners and academia to work together to ensure that the next generation of accountants is prepared in all aspects of the profession,” stated Ted Rose.

Martin Loeb, Chairman of the Accounting and Information Assurance Advisory Board commented, “Our faculty was impressed with [Rose Financial Services’] presentation at the Smith School. Consequently, I was pleased to invite [Ted Rose] to join our Accounting and Information Assurance Advisory Board.”
